MIT LIBRARIES

As true today as a century ago, books bring the distilled insights and wisdom of scholars and teachers to learners at all levels of education at MIT. Laptops, PDAs, and electronically-enabled classrooms notwithstanding, books— wonderfully portable—remain essential.

HONOR with BOOKS

Gifts in Memoriam • Gifts in Celebration

The MIT Libraries invite you to provide a memorial tribute, celebrate a special occasion, honor a friend or family member, or acknowledge an accomplishment by participating in Honor with Books.

Each tax deductible contribution of $100 or more will support the MIT Libraries. A bookplate bearing the name of the person you are remembering or honoring will be placed in a newly purchased book for each $100 gift. You can choose the library for which the book(s) will be acquired from the attached list. As an acknowledgement of your remembrance, a facsimile bookplate will be sent to you. If you are honoring a friend or family member, we also will notify them.

Your participation in Honor with Books will provide an enduring resource for MIT. For years to come, your generosity will be a symbol to students and faculty of cherished memories and scholarship.

We hope you will consider Honor with Books a fitting way to pay lasting tribute as you help the Libraries to strengthen their collections now and in the future.

Use Honor with Books for:

- Memorial Tributes • Anniversaries
- Birthdays • Graduations
- Other Special Occasions
