CONTEST RULES:
The contest will run for 3 weeks.
- Each week a new clue in the form of puzzle pieces will be added.
- Entries may be submitted at any time and you may enter once per week.
- If more than one correct entry, the winner will be selected by drawing.
- The answer to the puzzle can be found by searching the visual collections at Rotch Library: http://info-libraries.mit.edu/rotch/collections/visual-collections/
- The correct answer must include artist name/title of work and where you located the image.
- Entries may be made using this form (form available online) or online in an email to rvc-all@mit.edu.

If you enter between:
- FEB 22, 5pm -- MARCH 1, 5pm = your CORRECT answer will be worth 3 entries
- MARCH 1, 5:01pm--MARCH 8, 5pm = your CORRECT answer will be worth 2 entries
- MARCH 8, 5:01pm -- MARCH 15th, 5pm = your CORRECT answer will be worth 1 entry

The Mystery Image Contest is open to MIT undergraduate and graduate students ONLY. All entries must be submitted by March 15th at 5pm.
