SYNOPSIS.
The apprentice opens the store in the morning and winds up the different clocks, the ticking of which is illustrated by the music, which gradually develops into a musical imitation of a clock store. The cuckoo clock strikes the hour after which the deep sound of another clock is heard. The alarm clock then brings a merry-rattle, followed by the striking of another clock in harmony with the music. The apprentice then whistles a little tune. After this, the clock that contains the chimes gradually runs down and stops. The boy winds it up again and then the miniature chimes of a Scotch cathedral are heard in the distance. Now that all the clocks are in running order—the apprentice looks after his other work, and we leave the clock store.
